The Republic was in tow of the revenue cutter Gresham and the derelict destroyer Seneca, proceeding to New York, when she sank. On board her was Captain Sealby with a volunteer detail of the crew. They had towed them a short distance when she began to settle rapidly. Seeing no hope of saving the ship. Captain Sealby gave the order to abandon the vessel and the erew was taken off by the Gresham, which cast loose from the crippled liner and stood by until she sank beneath the waves.

Washington. Jan. 2i.—Governor Magon of the provisional government of Cuba, in his annual report to the secretary of war made public today, brings to his attention the wreck of the United States battleship Maine in Havana harber and recommends that the savernment take immediate steps to accomplish its removal without further declay. He says:

omits to express regret and censure for the deplorable speciacle.

"It has become a national reproach and an international scandal. The neglect to remove the wreck is attributed by many, especially the large Spanish contingent in Cuba, to the fear that its removal will disclose the fallacy of the popular belief that the Maine was destroyed by a torpedo or mine instead of an interior expression.
